Dear Atlantic Derm Members, Colleagues, and Friends:

Your Philadelphia-based Atlantic Derm Planning Committee welcomes you to the 92nd Atlantic Dermatological Conference in the birthplace of America! The Philadelphia Dermatological Society is honored to host you and the Atlantic Derm Conference. A special thank you is in order to this year’s amazing planning committee- feel free to give them a high-five or a fist-bump. They deserve it!

We hope you enjoy the long tradition of our case-based conference as well as several new initiatives we are launching this year:

Atlantic Derm Has Gone Digital: Everything you need to know about the weekend can be found on our new website at www.AtlanticDermConference.org. We’re also on twitter- follow us @AtlanticDermADC and tweet using the hashtag #AtlanticDerm.

Interactive Sessions: We plan on turning Atlantic Derm into a weekend-long interactive conversation among experts using a program called Socrative. Stop by the “Socrative Hot Spots” in the Liberty Foyer for help on getting your smartphone ready.

Poster Conversations: Visit the Freedom ballroom to see the nearly 50 innovative scientific poster presentations from across the Atlantic Derm region. Join in on the Poster Conversations by submitting your questions in the envelopes next to each poster. The authors will get right back to you with answers!

The Barnes Foundation: We have arranged exclusive access for Atlantic Derm on Saturday night at The Barnes Foundation’s stunning new Center City location. We look forward to seeing you at one of the greatest collections of post-Impressionist and early Modern art in the world.

Philly Fun Run—“Don’t Tan It, TONE IT” We are excited about the inaugural Atlantic Derm Fun Run. On Sunday morning our dermatology fitness experts will take participants on a guided tour of Philadelphia intermixed with fitness-related dermatology pearls and bursts of fun exercises. Stop by the Fun Run Table for more details.

The City of Brotherly Love awaits! Check out the “Philly Attractions” page on our website for fun activities, discounted museum tickets, and good eats for the whole family. We’ve highlighted family-friendly spots and arranged for discounted Phillies tickets at “Atlantic Derm Night at the Ballpark” for Friday night’s home game.

Please take the time to let us know what you thought of this year’s conference by filling out the online ‘Conference Evaluation’ at www.AtlanticDermConference.org. One lucky participant will win an iPad Air!

If you have any thoughts or questions throughout the weekend, email or tweet us. We’ll get right back to you.

Sincerely,

Mark Abdelmalek, MD

THE BARNES FOUNDATION

Full and exclusive access to the world-renowned art Collection

Saturday | April 25, 2015 | 7:00pm - 11:00pm
Reception, Dinner & Dancing | Collection Galleries
Fee $50 | Residents/Fellows/Students Fee: $25
Formal attire suggested

Double-decker buses will run between the Barnes and the hotel from 5:45pm to 11:30pm.

The Barnes holds one of the finest collections of Post-Impressionist and early Modern paintings, with extensive works by Pierre-Auguste Renoir, Paul Cézanne, Henri Matisse, Pablo Picasso, Henri Rousseau, Amedeo Modigliani, Chaim Soutine and Giorgio de Chirico, as well as American masters Charles Demuth, William Glackens, Horace Pippin and Maurice Prendergast.
Atlantic Derm’s live patient viewing session and discussion is always a conference highlight. During this full-day course, patients with exceptional diagnostic or therapeutic challenges are seen and examined by conference attendees. Cases presented also feature rare skin disorders, cutaneous manifestations of systemic disease and use of novel treatments.

The afternoon patient viewing discussion will include a review and analysis of the morning cases moderated by a panel of expert dermatologists and dermatopathologists.

This year we will be featuring interactive sessions to promote audience engagement. This conversation among conference attendees will be facilitated through the “Socrative” app which can be downloaded to smartphones or accessed online in the conference session at www.socrative.com.

We are very excited about launching this initiative!

After the completion of this session, attendees will gain new insight into diagnosis, treatment and evaluation of challenging dermatology patients.

Join the Interactive Clinical Case e-Discussion

We want to hear from you! Using a program called Socrative, please send us your thoughts, comments and suggestions as you walk through and view the clinical cases on Saturday morning. Your comments will be organized in time for Saturday afternoon’s case discussion session.

1. Go to m.socrative.com or open the Socrative app on your mobile device
2. Enter the Room number: 651778
3. Type your comments about cases in the format of “Case #: comment”
   • Such as: “3: saw a case like this, she did well with dapsone”
   • Or: “8: great case, I saw this in a 47 y/o man but with more ear involvement”
4. Press the “Submit Answer” button
5. To comment on another case, repeat steps 3 and 4
TELL US ABOUT YOUR 2015 ATLANTIC DERM EXPERIENCE

CME Evaluation

Turn in a hard copy of the CME evaluation form found in your Atlantic Derm bag to receive your CME credits. CME certificates will be emailed only to those who turn in the form at the Registration desk.

Conference Evaluation

Please take the time to tell us how we did by filling out the Conference Evaluation form online at www.AtlanticDermConference.org or by stopping by the Conference Evaluation Station in the Liberty Foyer.

All who complete the online conference evaluation form will be entered in a drawing to win an iPad Air. Your name or contact information will not be linked to your evaluation responses.

CME | 16.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™

AAD Recognized Credit Statement | The Philadelphia Dermatological Society’s 2015 Atlantic Dermatological Conference (Program #82100) is recognized by the American Academy of Dermatology for 16.25 AAD Credits and may be used toward the American Academy of Dermatology’s Continuing Medical Education Award. Go to www.aad.org to register your credits using the AAD Program #82100.

NACE Accreditation Statement | This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the essential areas and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint sponsorship of the National Association for Continuing Education and the Philadelphia Dermatological Society. The National Association for Continuing Education is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

NACE Designation Statement | The National Association for Continuing Education designates this live activity for a maximum of 16.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

How To Obtain CME Certificate | You can earn up to 16.25 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ by participating in CME activities at the 2015 Atlantic Dermatological Conference. You must claim credit for your participation in the CME activities by completing the Evaluation Form included in your registration materials and submitting it to the registration desk prior to leaving the conference. You will receive a CME certificate for the number of credits claimed on your evaluation form via email from NACE within 4 weeks. For questions regarding certificates, please contact NACE at info@naceonline.com.

Program Description/Need and Learning Objectives | Significant advances have occurred in the diagnosis and treatment of dermatological conditions. Health care practitioners in the field of dermatology need educational opportunities to gain knowledge of recent findings and newly accepted standards related to diagnostic techniques and treatment options. By providing up to date information on the latest advances in diagnostics, therapies, and pathogenesis by those who specialize in the field, our goal is to facilitate best practices and improve current provider practices.

At the conclusion of this CME activity, participants should be able to discuss clinical presentation and pathophysiology of dermatologic conditions; discuss the diagnosis and treatment of the conditions covered; and discuss general clinical advances in the field of dermatology and issues specific to practitioners in the field.

Disclosure Policy | It is the policy of the National Association for Continuing Education (NACE) to ensure fair balance, independence, objectivity and scientific rigor in all activities. All faculty participating in CME activities sponsored by the National Association for Continuing Education are required to present evidence-based data, identify and reference off-label product use and disclose all relevant financial relationships with commercial interests. All planners and faculty have submitted disclosure information to NACE.

Individual Disclosures | These individuals reported they have no relevant financial relationships with commercial interests to disclose:

Renowned International Humanitarian and Scholar

Raoul Wallenberg: A Personal Story of Rescue

Saturday luncheon | April 25, 2015
Liberty C/D Ballroom

Morris Wolff is an acclaimed international human rights lawyer and humanitarian.

Wolff served as legal counsel for Civil Rights issues in the John F. Kennedy White House and was appointed by US Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy to help create The Civil Rights Act of 1964. Along with Rosa Parks, Wolff was awarded the National Council of Christian and Jews Annual Award for humanitarian service for helping to write The Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Wolff was honored by the United States Congress in 2005 for his humanitarian efforts in seeking the release of Raoul Wallenberg, a Swedish Diplomat who saved the lives of more than 100,000 Jews during the Holocaust, but was later imprisoned by the Soviets. In 1983, Mr. Wolff won a historic lawsuit against the Soviet Union on behalf of Raoul Wallenberg. The US Federal Courts awarded the Wallenberg family $39 million dollars in damages and found the Soviets liable for the kidnapping of Wallenberg.

Wolff is also the recipient of the United Nations Peace Award for Humanitarian Service at Carnegie Hall and is a graduate of Amherst College and Yale Law School. He is currently the Scholar-in-Residence at the historic St. Peter’s School in Philadelphia.
