WELCOME TO THE 100TH ATLANTIC DERMATOLOGICAL CONFERENCE

Dear Colleagues and Friends:

The Maryland Dermatologic Society welcomes you to the 100th Atlantic Dermatological Conference (ADC 2023) in Baltimore, Maryland.

The planning committee has tailored this meeting for you – the dermatological professional who wants to continue learning and expand your skill set.

We look forward to three days of interactive educational and scientific sessions, a live patient injection session, product theaters, poster sessions, networking with colleagues and the ADC Exhibit Hall. In the Exhibit Hall, a wide variety of companies will be represented to discuss new and emerging dermatological products, technologies and services.

The Live Patient Viewing Session, the hallmark of ADC, will be Saturday, May 13, 2023. This will be held in the morning at the Baltimore VA Clinic followed by an expert panel discussion reviewing each of the cases.

Plan to join us for a truly unique reception on Saturday evening at The Grand Baltimore. Enjoy cocktails, live music, and a seated dinner while experiencing the beautiful Masonic temple that is The Grand.

We look forward to your participation during ADC 2023 and thank you for your continued support! If you have any thoughts or questions throughout the weekend, please feel free to email, tweet, and visit the ADC Staff at the registration desk.

Sincerely,

Chikoti Wheat, MD, FAAD

ADC POLICIES

STATEMENT OF NEED

Significant advances have occurred in the diagnosis and treatment of dermatological conditions. Practitioners in the field need educational opportunities to gain knowledge of recent findings and newly accepted standards related to diagnostic techniques and treatment options. By providing up to date information on the latest advances in diagnostics, therapies, and pathogenesis by those who specialize in the field, our goal is to facilitate best practices and improve current provider practices.

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Identify current controversies in dermatology and how to navigate them with patients.
- Employ practical skills to improve procedural techniques and patient's outcomes in cosmetic and surgical dermatology.
- Describe and utilize recently approved therapeutics for common dermatologic conditions.
- Discuss diagnosis and treatment of disorders that disproportionately occurs in the skin of color population including pigmentary disorders, hair disorders in tightly coiled hair, and hidradenitis suppurativa.
- Quantify the value of systemic treatments for nonmelanoma skin cancers and review evidence-based guidelines for the management of CSCC and MCC
- Identify barriers for patients and proper diagnosis treatment, and implement strategies to prescribing with value in the patient care setting.
- Utilize sub-specialty expert knowledge for uncommon conditions and recognize when to refer or utilize specialists to optimize patient care.
